

BRAISHFIELD WAR MEMORIAL

Braishfield War Memorial was dedicated in 1921 and was constructed on land donated by Thomas Lush, a Churchwarden of All Saints Church, Braishfield. The dedication service was conducted by the Reverend ER Chamney, Vicar of Braishfield. Amongst those present at the service was Admiral RHS Bacon (seen saluting in the photograph) whose son's name is on the Memorial.

In 1921 the Trustees of the War Memorial were the Members of the Winchester Diocesan Board of Finance, with administration carried out by Braishfield Parochial Church Council.

In 1999, with the approval of the Charity Commission, the War Memorial became a Registered Charity (No 1064699) and Braishfield Civil Parish Council became the sole Trustee. Braishfield Parish Council insures the Memorial and carries out maintenance out of public funds.

Tony Catton was a Sergeant Observer serving in 13 Operational Training Unit based at RAF Bicester in Oxfordshire. On 8th April 1940 he was on board Bristol Blenheim L9039 which took off on a training exercise with two other aircraft to the Isle of Man and back via Hartland Point. At about 11.20am the Blenheim hit a cliff face at Craig yr Ysfal in Snowdonia, killing all four crew. The crash site was not discovered until the next day.

The site is in a remote part of Snowdonia and much of the wreckage remains visible today, a good deal of it having fallen 1000ft down into the gulley below the cliffs. The date of 7th April 1940 on his grave in Braishfield Churchyard appears to be incorrect.

Medal Roll Cards of some of those who served in the First World War

NB 'List' or 'On SWB List' refers to receipt of the Silver War Badge on discharge from the Army on medical grounds. All cards refer to the entitlement to the British General Service Medal and Victory Medal. Several additionally refer to the 1914 Star or 1915 Star. It appears that Frank Goulding's mother queried the omission of his 1915 Star entitlement.
